AG MISSION STATEMENT

As a part of the Pentecostal body of Christ, the mission of the Deaf Women's Fall Retreat is to serve an outreach seeking to provide avenues where Deaf Women across America can experience the touch of God bringing healing of the body, mind, and soul. Through opportunities of worship and fellowship with God and each other, strengthened commitments to Christ and to each other brings hope.

Theme: GOOD FATHER

Bible Verse: Matthew 7:11
If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Janie Schwyhart served along side her husband, Jimmy Schwyhart, as pastors of Praise Assembly Deaf Church in Tulsa, OK from 1994 until 2012. At her husband's home-going, Janie became Senior Pastor of the church. She is the mother of four children, three that are married. Her six grandchildren are her pride and joy.

In addition to pastoring, she home schools her 15 year old son, interprets, loves to sew, and spend time with her family. Janie has a passion to share the message of hope in trying times, as well as our place in the Kingdom as children of God. It has been her pleasure and privilege to share this message both at home and internationally.
